Active Learning and Teaching

Ms. Jeanne Corsten from The Netherlands visited KESIS on 20th and 23rd of October'23. Ms. Corsten is a Senior Educator (English) who taught at the Pius X School in Bladel (Netherland) for 45 years.

She conducted a workshop for the teachers and students, Classes 6 and 7 on 'Active Learning and Teaching' strategies. The focus was on practical approach, on how to use language resources and materials to develop student's language skills.

Active Learning and Teaching

With appropriate material, the teacher can activate his/her didactics and find the path towards integration of all language skills blended with analytical and critical thinking.

The workshop titled “TOSSING LINES” proved how important it is to encourage both teachers and students to feel confident with a new approach and how beautifully teachers can apply the new strategies in their day-to-day practice.
