

August, ' 24

KESIS Open House: A Promising Start to the New Academic Year

The Open House of the new academic year at KESIS was a vibrant and engaging event, marking a significant step in our collaborative journey with parents.

August, ' 24

Nurturing the Roots of Learning

Personalized feedback on each child's progress allowed parents to see how their children are blossoming in this critical stage of development.

August, ' 24

Building Strong Foundations

Teachers highlighted the growth and achievements of students in a holistic manner, focusing not just on academic milestones but also on social and emotional development.

August, ' 24

A Unified Vision: Moving Forward Together

As we embark on this new academic journey, the KESIS community remains united in its dedication to nurturing every student's potential and ensuring that they thrive in a dynamic and supportive environment.